I am PC 3091 LANSLEY of the Hampshire Constabulary currently stationed at Cosham. On Saturday 24th January 2015 at 0007 hours I was on duty in uniform when I attended Birdlip Road in Paulsgrove to the report of a male who had been assaulted.

On arrival I was met by a male I know to be [REDACTED] [REDACTED] who stated that the victim was in his house across the road. I went over to the address and could see a male in the kitchen who had blood on his arms and face and had the following visible injuries –

Bruising to back where he had been kicked, swollen and cut lower lip, cut to top of head in hair about 1 ½ cm in length, he had grazing to both of his lower arms and a notable bruise to the right of his neck near the collarbone. He stated that he did not lose consciousness at any point.

The informant, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] described what she saw – a white male, 6foot tall, late 40's in age, bald, fat build, jeans and pink t-shirt hit [REDACTED] several times with a pool cue, this happened just outside the front door to the pub in the car park area. She said that she had seen him before but does not know who he is.

[REDACTED] informed me that he picked up ½ of the pool cue from the floor of the carpark and took it inside the address where [REDACTED] took refuge. I seized this and can produced it as [REDACTED]/01.

[REDACTED] was wearing a white t-shirt with blue stripes on it, jeans and is about 5'6" tall, slim build, dark brown hair which is obviously gelled.

[REDACTED] refused to speak to me and tell me what happened. He did not want to wait for an ambulance; however one was enroute so I made him wait. When I discovered after about 10 minutes that there were no free units from ambulance to attend he was taken home to [REDACTED] his parents so they could take him to the hospital. [REDACTED] would not let me photograph his injuries and kept moving and walking away. He would not let me seize his clothing.

He was taken to his home address in the police van and I had no further dealings.
