10 Football and Event Related Conditions

All conditions in this section relate to instances where football matches (as defined in condition 10) and events (as defined in condition 11) are being held at the football stadium known as Fratton Park.

11 For the purposes of these conditions, a football match must be a designated football match as defined in law, under The Football Spectators (Prescription) Order 2000 (SI 2000/2126) and the Football (Offences) (Designation) Order 2000 (SI 2000/2329).

12 For the purposes of these conditions, an event will be any regulated entertainment lead event held within the football stadium known as Fratton Park, where the organiser can confirm at least 48 hours before that the attendance will be greater than 5000.

13 The following conditions will last from 2 hours prior to the advertised start time of the match or event, until 1 hour from the conclusion of the match or event.

14 Where a relevant football match or event is due to take place, the premises license holder must ensure there is signage at all access and egress points to and from the licensable area. These signs must make it clear that persons attending the match or event will not be served alcohol.

15 Where a relevant football match or event is due to take place and the police commander (or their authorised representative) makes it clear that the requirements in conditions 9-14 are to be abided by for that football match or event then, all alcohol sales in the period covered by these conditions will be prohibited. Where this requirement is made then the premises license holder must be informed immediately in an agreed way. The only exception to this will be where a sale is part of a larger transaction involving non- alcoholic goods. Any such sale must be authorised by a member of staff deemed by the premises license holder to hold a supervisory position.
