The committee carefully considered the application before it, including the written representation.

The area is not an area of cumulative impact or one of special policy and as such the evidence must be premises specific and fact-based. Fears and concerns are not sufficient evidence in themselves.

Appeal Provisions:

In accordance with the provisions of Schedule 5 of the Act, appeal provisions exist in respect of applications made to the Licensing Authority. Those provisions are outlined as follows:

The applicant:

Where the Licensing Authority rejects an application for a premises licence, the applicant may appeal against the decision - Part 1, paragraph 1(a) of the Act.

Where the Licensing Authority grants a premises licence, the holder of the licence may appeal against any decision:

- to impose conditions on the licence; or
- to take any step to exclude a licensable activity or refuse to specify a person as premises supervisor - Part 1, paragraph 2(2) of the Act.

A person who made relevant representations:

Where a person who made relevant representations in relation to the application desires to contend:

- that the licence ought not to have been granted, or
- that, on granting the licence, the Licensing Authority ought to have imposed different or additional conditions, or should have excluded any of the licensable activities to which the application relates or to refuse to specify a person in the licence as the premises supervisor

he may appeal against the decision – Part 1, paragraph 2(3) of the Act.

Note: The applicant for the licence is to be the respondent in addition to the Licensing Authority in relation to any appeal lodged by a person(s) who made relevant representations.

General Provisions About Appeals:

An appeal must be made to the Magistrates' court for the petty sessions area in which the premises concerned are situated.

An appeal must be commenced by notice of appeal given by the appellant to the designated officer for the Magistrates' court within the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the appellant was notified by the Licensing Authority of the decision appealed against.¹

Action that may be taken by the Magistrates' Court:

On an appeal against a decision of the Licensing Authority, a Magistrates' court may:

- dismiss the appeal;
- substitute for the decision appealed against, any other decision which could have been made by the Licensing Authority; or
- remit the case to the Licensing Authority to dispose of it in accordance with the direction of the court, and may make such order as to costs as it thinks fit.
