

Agenda item:

Title of meeting: Health and Well Being Board

Date of meeting: 3rd September 2014

Subject: Disabled Children's Charter for Health and Wellbeing Boards

Report by: Julian Wooster, Director of Children's Services and Adults Services

Wards affected: All

Key decision: No

Full Council decision: No

1. Purpose

1.1. To seek the Health and Wellbeing Board's approval to sign the Disabled Children's Charter for Health and Wellbeing Boards

2. Recommendations:

2.1 The Health and Wellbeing Board sign the Disabled Children's Charter as a statement of their commitment "to improving the quality of life and outcomes experienced by disabled children, young people and their families, including children and young people with special educational needs and health conditions".

3. Background

3.1 The Disabled Children's Charter for Health and Wellbeing Boards (set out as Appendix A) has been developed as part of the 'Every Disabled Child Matters' campaign to help local areas demonstrate how they will deliver the shared ambitions of the health system set out by the Government ¹.

¹ Department of Health (2013), Better Health Outcomes for Children and Young People: Our Pledge

7 Reasons for recommendations

- 7.1 This charter will help the board articulate its vision for delivering the Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy priority to ensure all children and young people get the best possible start in life. The principles it proposes are very much in line with what the city, the Children's Trust Board, the Children with Disabilities Board and its implementation group are striving to achieve.

8. Equality Impact Assessment (EIA)

- 8.1 An EIA will not be required.

9. Head of Legal's comments

- 9.1 There are no other immediate legal implications arising from this report

10. Head of Finance's comments

- 10.1 There are no direct financial implications contained within the recommendations of this report.

Disabled Children's Charter for Health and Wellbeing Boards

The Health and Wellbeing Board is committed to improving the quality of life and outcomes experienced by disabled children, young people and their families, including children and young people with special educational needs and health conditions. We will work together in partnership with disabled children and young people, and their families to improve universal and specialised services, and ensure they receive the support they need, when they need it. Disabled children and young people will be supported to fulfil their potential and achieve their aspirations and the needs of the family will be met so that they can lead ordinary lives.

By [date within 1 year of signing the Charter] our Health and Wellbeing Board will provide evidence that:

1. We have detailed and accurate information on the disabled children and young people living in our area, and provide public information on how we plan to meet their needs
2. We engage directly with disabled children and young people and their participation is embedded in the work of our Health and Wellbeing Board
3. We engage directly with parent carers of disabled children and young people and their participation is embedded in the work of our Health and Wellbeing Board
4. We set clear strategic outcomes for our partners to meet in relation to disabled children, young people and their families, monitor progress towards achieving them and hold each other to account
5. We promote early intervention and support for smooth transitions between children and adult services for disabled children and young people
6. We work with key partners to strengthen integration between health, social care and education services, and with services provided by wider partners
7. We provide cohesive governance and leadership across the disabled children and young people's agenda by linking effectively with key partners
