Housing Prioritisation Considerations

Within Learning Disability Services there are frequently competing needs around limited resources. This is a significant issue when allocating housing resources. In an attempt to be fair and transparent the following prioritisation considerations will be used:-

High Priority - Red.

These people will have the following profiles:-

- Have been waiting over 12 months on the housing list
- Are without accommodation currently
- Require unique and bespoke responses to their accommodation needs (e.g. hoisting).
- Accommodation is required by a Community Care & Treatment Review
- There is an imminent safeguarding concern for them or others in their current accommodation.
- There is an imminent need to change accommodation (i.e. provider has served notice)

Medium Priority - Amber.

These people will have the following profiles:-

- Have been waiting between 6-12 months on the housing list
- Their housing has been recognised as not the most appropriate within the DOLS assessment process.
- There is a known and planned change for the person or their accommodation that will occur between 3 – 6 months (e.g. family are moving away)..
- There are safeguarding concerns about the viability of the placement in the longer term.
- There are increasing risks for the person or others within their current accommodation with a reduced ability to safely manage those risks.
- Their accommodation is raised as an area of focus within a Best Interest Forum.

Low Priority - Green

These people will have the following profiles:-

- In a stable placement but would like to explore other options.
- Have been waiting less than 6 months on the housing list.
- There are no concerns about the safety or appropriateness of the service currently being provided.
