Provision of core funding to support the revenue costs of a number of culture led organisations contributes to the cultural wealth of the city overall. Without a diverse cultural offer the city would fail to attract visitors and would provide a reduced quality offer to both residents and visitors alike.

How are you going to measure/check the impact of your proposal?
By continuing to bring an annual report to members for consideration.

Provision of core revenue funding enables those organisations in receipt of the funding the opportunity to offer employment and experience through their staff and volunteer structures. Creative Industries is a growth area for the city and the region and without revenue funding these organisations would be unable to operate and deliver their programmes of work.

How are you going to measure/check the impact of your proposal?

By continuing to bring an annual report for members consideration and by ensuring that organisations provide details of their employment and volunteering opportunities.

Q8 - Who was involved in the Integrated impact assessment?
