The Kwiki Mart has attracted all night gatherings on the street outside the store. It starts any time from 10 o'clock at night going round to 8am the following morning. Starting with 2 or 3 adults, mostly male, growing up to a dozen some evenings.

They are drinking alcohol on the street bought from the store leaving their empty can, bottles and plastic cups all over the pavement and in the gutter. Also takeaway food containers from local food outlets are left lying around. They end up drunk, shouting, singing, fighting, using the side road and my gateway as a public toilet. Often playing music which they dance and sing along to. Beg and hassle people as they go into the store.

This is not just happening at the week-ends but during the week as well.

I have called the police and logged online complaints on various occasions.

This is obviously known by the council because each morning the road sweeper comes round to clear the gutters and the litter pickers arrive to sweep the pavement and pick up the remaining rubbish outside the store.

The pavements are filthy, smell and an embarrassment to the local area and residents. This must have a reflection on the young school children who have to walk by these people/mess.

As a woman living on my own, I don't feel comfortable approaching them to ask them to move on. I have contacted the police on several occasions and they have informed me they are going to look into this.

This complaint has no reflection on the Royal Albert Pub next door.

I get this is a convenience store and someone's living but this is only convenient for the drunks and a big inconvenience for the residents living in the area who shouldn't have to live with this anti-social behaviour.
