What is the aim of your policy, service, function, project or strategy?

The Modern Slavery Act 2015 (MSA 2015) applies to England and Wales and includes the offences of human trafficking and slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour. The Act establishes a legal duty under Section 52 for specified public authorities to notify the Home Office where there is reasonable grounds to believe a person may be a victim of modern slavery. Section 54 of the MSA

2015 requires commercial organisations carrying out business in the UK, with a turnover of at least £36 million, to prepare and publish a slavery and human trafficking statement for each and every financial year. The City Council is therefore required to produce an annual statement and improvement plan.

Although the prevalence of this hidden crime is not known, there is an economic benefit to each individual supported out of slavery. Moving victims into legitimate employment will advance their skills and personal development. This could also provide an overall economic benefit to the city and help to prevent others from being removed from the labour market and into slavery.
