Directorate	PCC Culture Leisure and Regulatory Services
Service	Seafront Services
Title of policy, service, function	Seafront Arts 'Navigate' project
Type of policy, service, function	Existing
What is the aim of your policy, service, function, project or strategy?	A programme of public art and activities on Southsea Seafront. The project forms part of the wider enhancements programme for the Southsea Coastal Scheme.
Has any consultation been undertaken for this proposal?	yes
What were the outcomes of the consultations?	The project has been informed by feedback from Coastal Partners' public consultations sessions and regular consultation with a steering group of stakeholders from the city's arts organisations. This consultation illustrated great public interest in making the coastal scheme a vibrant place to visit and spend leisure time. The steering group's emphasis has been on ensuring the programme of public art has quality and ambition.
Has anything changed because of the consultation?	no
Did this inform your proposal?	no

Equality & diversity - will it have any positive/negative impacts on the protected characteristics?

With the above in mind and following data analysis, who is the policy, service, function, project or strategy going to benefit or have a detrimental effect on and how?	The project will enhance the seafront for the benefit of local residents. It is also hoped that the project will help grow the visitor economy by raising the city's profile as a cultural destination. The project will be fully accessible to the public and not have a detrimental effect on any specific group.
Will any of those groups be affected in a different way to others because of your policy, project, service, function, or strategy?	N/A
If you are directly or indirectly discriminating, how are you going to mitigate the negative impact?	N/A
Who have you consulted with or are planning to consult with and what was/will be your consultation methodology?	N/A
How are you going to review the policy, service, project or strategy, how often and who will be responsible?	The Seafront Arts Programme Officer will be responsible for evaluation and review at the end of the project. This will involve a public survey and evaluation session with project partners/steering group members. This will provide the council with valuable insight for future public art projects.

Health - will this help promote healthy, safe and independent living?

Please expand on the impact your policy/proposal will have, and how you propose to mitigate any negative impacts?	Integrating public art into the Southsea Coastal Scheme will enhance the new promenades, making them into attractive and engaging public spaces. Improving the public realm encourages residents to walk more and be outdoors more, which has benefits to mental and physical health and improves quality of life.
How are you going to measure/check the impact of your proposal?	We have factored in an evaluation at the end of the project. This is a requirement of some of the bodies that are funding the project and will provide the council with valuable insight for future public art projects. The evaluation will take the form of a public survey.
