3.3 The Portsmouth CDP has the following priorities:

- 1. Disrupt local drug supply chains and drug related crime
- 2. Improve the quality, capacity and outcomes of our drug & alcohol prevention and treatment services
- 3. Reduce the misuse and harm caused to young people by drugs & alcohol

Each quarter the Portsmouth CDP receives a detailed report called the Monitoring Framework. This details progress against 35 different measures linked to our 3 priorities.

3.4 Annual progress report

CDPs are required to produce an annual progress report. Appendix 1 is the Portsmouth CDP Annual Review and provides detail on a range of performance measures.
